BANKRUPTCY INFORMATION WORKSHEET

(updated February 2009)

This worksheet asks for most of the information we need to properly analyze a possible bankruptcy filing with you, and to complete the schedules should a bankruptcy filing be the best course of action. It is important that you provide as much information as possible so that both of us can get a clear picture of your financial situation, and this information is required by the schedules filed with the Court. If you have any questions at all as you are completing this form, please call or email.

Please keep in mind the additional items we will need early in the process:

1. Identification. Drivers license and social security card, or valid passport.
2. You must obtain credit counseling prior to filing. There are no exceptions (short of Act of God, or military service), even if you are facing a foreclosure tomorrow! Call now to get an appointment because the agencies do fill up (especially in the days before foreclosures). We cannot file your case without the counseling certificate. We recommend Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Atlanta (www.cccsatl.org). They are reputable and have been around for years. Their number is 1-800-251-

CCCS (2227), and they have options for completing the counseling over the phone or via the web.

3. Documents that reflect your income for the six months prior to the bankruptcy filing date are required for filing. This normally means all pay stubs for the period. If you need to get copies from your employer, please request them now. If you do not have these documents (for example, self-employed), be prepared to provide all documents necessary to reflect your income and to sign an affidavit stating your income. If you have been unemployed during this time, you will sign a form stating so.
4. Your last filed tax return is required. However, the process will go much more smoothly if you can provide the last three years' returns (including W-2's, 1099's, etc.). We will need to state your income for those years so you need to refer to those anyway.
5. If you own a house or other real estate, be prepared to document or back-up the value you place on the home or property. If you have recently obtained a loan or refinance, you probably have an appraisal. Otherwise, you need to investigate the actual value. Check advertisements and flyers from similar homes in your neighborhood or ask a friendly real estate agent to do a desk review. Trustees are now asking how you came to the value stated in the schedules.
6. Documents that relate to secured debts (security agreements, security deeds, etc.), and documents that support your unsecured debts going back six months (example: credit card statements, bills, collection/legal notices), and copies of all lawsuits, letters from lawyers, judgments, and liens.

7. All of your property and debts must be disclosed. There is no such thing as “keeping property/debts out of bankruptcy.” Failure to list property and assets is a crime as the schedules are signed under penalty of perjury.
8. If you have a prior bankruptcy (anywhere in the US) in the last 10 years, please tell us in the beginning so we can discuss your options.
9. A detailed budget showing your actual and realistic expense during the month. One is included in this form. Whether you are considering a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, it is in your best interest (for the case and otherwise) that you prepare one. For your personal use, we can provide you with an Excel spreadsheet to work on the budget.

Depending on the facts of your case, we may ask for other information but if you can start with the items listed, it will save us a lot of time in preparing your forms. When in doubt, just call.

Individual Debtors

Please go through these worksheets carefully. Provide as much information as you can since this is the information required for the bankruptcy schedules filed with the court. Fill out what applies and cross out the rest. If you need more sheets, most of the forms are designed to be duplicated. If necessary, attach additional sheets and label them, for example: "Unsecured creditors, page 4 of 4."

Income – Primary Debtor

The bankruptcy laws, effective October 2005, require “means testing” for Chapter 7. This means that we must look at your total household income, even if only one spouse is filing. We will also need to review pay stubs or other documents backing up your income, and your spouse’s, for the last six months. It is very important that we provide accurate information as it is required by law, and will avoid potential problems with you getting a discharge of your debts.

Pay Period (weekly, bi-weekly, monthly?): _____

Income before Deductions per pay period: $ _____

Amount of Take Home Pay per pay period: $ _____

Other income, such as part-time job (explain) _____

_____

Total gross income from employment year to date (2009): $ _____

Total gross income for last two calendar year: 2007 $ _____ 2008 $ _____

What is your average monthly income for the previous six months? Simply divide your total gross income, from all sources, for that period, whether employed or unemployed during that time, by six. Do not include social security income. $ _____/month.

Are there any unusual circumstances that increase your monthly budget? For example, do you care for an elderly relative in your home, without reimbursement? Do you (or a family member) have significant ongoing medical/prescription expenses? Children in college? If you believe you have unusual circumstances, please explain your situation. It may help with your filing.

Secured Debts

When you list secured creditors, you are telling us about two things: first, about the creditor and what you owe, and, second, about the property which secures the debt. The debts for your home, cars and boat are usually secured debts. Debts for some of your furniture, computer or electronics may also be secured debts, especially if you bought them with in-house store credit. Most credit card debts and medical bills are not to be listed here. If you have tax liens or other liens that have attached to your property, they should also be listed here.

If in doubt, list the debt and discuss later. You must list the debt even if you plan on continuing making payments and keeping the property. Go ahead and obtain copies of all supporting documentation, including monthly statements, security deeds, and financing agreements. You may need it later and it helps us prepare accurate schedules now. Include leased vehicles here (note it is leased)!

Be specific when describing the property securing the debt (ie, "1999 Honda Accord EX" or "1.53 acres of land located at 111 Baker Street, Atlanta GA 33333")

Unsecured Debts

Unsecured debts are debts such as credit card debts, hospital bills, utility bills, taxes, personal loans, and other obligations that are not secured by property. These lists are used to give creditors notice of your bankruptcy. A creditor must get notice of your bankruptcy, or his claim may not be discharged. You must be complete and accurate with all addresses. If you are not sure of the exact amount owed, list your best guess. It is more important that a creditor get notice of your bankruptcy than that the amount listed as owed be 100% accurate. Be sure to list such debts as child support and maintenance (alimony) arrearages, student loans, delinquent utility bills, loans you co-signed or guaranteed (even if the loan is not in default). Some of these debts are not dischargeable in bankruptcy, and other debts you might want to pay off in spite of the bankruptcy. Nonetheless, you should list all these debts. When in doubt, list the debt even if it is for a small amount. Make copies of the pages if necessary.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a 'trustee' and by creditors.

If you choose to file a chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than chapter 7 or chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.
